Description

The villa can accommodate up to six guests and is located on the impressive Cortijo El Carligto estate, not far from Málaga. From here, you can enjoy breathtaking views of the mountains, while the beach is just a short drive away. But with the relaxed atmosphere, private pool and wonderful terraces in the garden, you might not want to go far. This exclusive Andalusian retreat comprises two stylish villas (El Carligto and Hunting Lodge), which can be rented individually for smaller groups or together for special occasions such as weddings, events or an unforgettable holiday for up to 14 people. If you are interested, we look forward to hearing from you.

The light-filled interiors exude a relaxed elegance, with carefully selected pieces of furniture, beautiful artwork and modern touches. The living room invites you to linger all year round - with spacious, comfortable sofas, stylish ceramics and an eye-catching carpet. The wood-burning stove also provides cosy warmth on winter days.

The modern kitchen with exposed beams leads directly into the picturesque dining area. With its elegant white cupboards and worktops, it is perfectly equipped for preparing delicious Spanish dishes. You can even hire a private chef if you wish. The dining room, with its art deco furnishings and stunning mountain views, is the perfect place for a relaxed breakfast or a romantic candlelit dinner.

The three double rooms with en-suite bathrooms are stylish and inviting. With crisp white bed linen, terracotta floors and unique artwork, they exude a relaxed atmosphere. The bathrooms are all equally immaculate and sparkling.

The real highlight of the property, however, can be found outside. On the covered terrace you will find an impressive outdoor kitchen and a cosy dining area. With stone floors, a wood-burning stove, a fireplace and atmospheric lighting, this area is simply magical. A little further on, there is a spacious lounge area and even an outdoor bed - ideal for a relaxing afternoon siesta. The pool area also offers breathtaking views and provides a refreshing cool-down on hot days.

The location is ideal for anyone who wants to get away from it all. There are numerous hiking trails in the mountains right on the doorstep. Beach lovers can quickly reach Torre del Mar and the beautiful beaches of Nerja by car. But given the impressive panoramic views of the pool, it might be hard to leave this wonderful place at all.
