The imposing property offers its guests a panoramic sea view over the open sea, the marina and the UNESCO World Heritage listed Tramuntana mountains. Both over the land and the sea you can gain access to the property. As soon as you reach the gate, the property impresses with the wooden entrance and reminds of a fortress from earlier times. A private jetty is available to visitors by sea, while yachts up to 30 meters can approach the property due to the circumstances. Surrounded by enchanting Mediterranean gardens, the property offers numerous opportunities to retreat to various terraces and enjoy the tranquility and exclusivity of the villa. The villa consists of a main house with 3 suites and a guest house, which is not inferior in exclusiveness to the main house. Everything is thought through to the smallest detail and designed with love. A special highlight, the Lady Di Suite is located in the main building, the "Princess of the Hearts" already spent one of her holidays here.
