With its direct access to the rocks which is 50 metres away on Clifton First beach, this is the ideal spot for your beach holiday in Cape Town.

Specials

Clifton is possibly the most popular beach in Cape Town and one of the most sought-after suburbs on the Atlantic Seaboard. Clifton is made up of four coves, each with its own beach, called 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th beaches. What makes Clifton's beaches especially popular is their shelter from the infamous South Easter and the beauty of the white, sandy beaches and rocky coves, with Table Mountain providing an impressive backdrop.
