Description

Villa Casa Curko is an ultra modern single storey property that offers great amounts of comfort and maximum style. Based in the peaceful residential suburb of Flamingo Vlei, this home is located on a large piece of land with a grand garden that presents loads of opportunity for leisure and entertainment.

With an outdoor deck that protrudes around the perimeter of the building, it's an ideal place to enjoy the splendour of the outdoors. This is the perfect getaway spot for a family or travel group of 6-10 people. Located only a few metres away from the Table View Soccer Club, Tennis Club and Atlantic Padel Courts means that sports activities can be enjoyed by guests throughout their stay. Villa Casa Curko is also just a short drive from Blouberg Beach and many surrounding seaside restaurants as well as the Table View Shopping Centre where guests can stock up on grocery items.

This villa includes four generously-sized bedrooms, two on-suite bathrooms and an additional bathroom that is within close proximity to the living quarters. The home also offers a designated office space that is perfect for work obligations and business calls along with an inverter that ensures the wifi is powered during all hours of the day. A luxurious Italian kitchen and a wood-powered fireplace round off an extremely comfortable stay.

The outdoor entertainment area of Villa Casa Curko is a feature that heightens the appeal of this venue even more. Guests can enjoy: a large swimming pool, a braai and cooker as well as many different seating and dining options. The beautiful garden extends across the entire lot, providing an earthy and laid back atmosphere. Enjoy an outdoor feast by making use of the high-end offset smoker, bonfire corner and artisanal pizza oven. With so much to offer, this is a home that truly welcomes conviviality, good company and memories to last a lifetime.
