Description

Finca Ruberta is a charming 17th century property that has been lovingly renovated without destroying the charm of the original building. The result is a finca property that perfectly balances the traditional with the modern and comfortably accommodates 8 guests.

Nestled in the natural surroundings of the mountain town of Soller with fantastic views of the Tramuntana mountains, the finca is the ideal place to escape from everyday life and unwind. The large pool with terrace and wide lawns offer space to relax and enjoy.

The large property offers many different places to explore and relax.

Specials

Since the finca is heated in winter, it also offers vacationers away from the hot summer months an untroubled stay. The sauna warms up the muscles after long days of hiking or after spending the day on the bike.

End the day in the whirlpool with a glass of wine and give yourself the gift of time that often comes too short in the hectic working day.
